

Tony Chatman BIOGRAPHY

MEET TONY

The engine of a thriving culture is the untapped potential of your people. To unlock that potential, you need a spark. Whether it's empowering your leaders, fostering genuine connections, navigating change, or resolving cultural challenges, Tony Chatman delivers the spark that transforms individuals and teams into a cohesive, high-performing culture.

For over 20 years, Tony has partnered with some of the most successful organizations in the world—including Chase Bank, the U.S. Secret Service, Phillips 66, Clear Channel, and St. Joseph's Health. He specializes in bridging differences in perspectives, communication styles, and experiences by addressing the universal need we all share: to feel valued and seen.

As a scientist and chemical engineer, as well as a husband, father, and former leader of a nonprofit dedicated to community upliftment, Tony combines intellect with humanity. He is equal parts head and heart. He brings research-based insights into human behavior and leadership while delivering transformative experiences with humor, warmth, and empathy. His keynote presentations captivate audiences, encouraging them to laugh, reflect, and grow together. Tony's practical, results-driven approach to cultural transformation helps organizations overcome stagnation and leverage the full power of their people.

With Tony Chatman and his team's cutting-edge training solutions, you won't just improve your organization's culture—you'll elevate the way your people work together to achieve meaningful results.

WHY HIRE TONY CHATMAN?

Tony Chatman has redefined how organizations transform leadership, foster collaboration, and lead through change. His unique approach ignites cultural transformation by focusing on individual growth as the foundation for organizational success. Here's why he's the speaker your event needs:

- He captivates and inspires: Tony is known for his commanding stage presence, humor, and storytelling. He creates engaging, unforgettable experiences that not only entertain but also empower audiences to take meaningful action.
- He delivers results that matter: Tony's strategies have helped organizations increase employee engagement, improve leadership effectiveness, and build high-performing teams. His work inspires transformation that is both immediate and sustainable.
- He tailors his presentations to your needs: Whether delivering a keynote, leading a workshop, or engaging a virtual audience, Tony customizes his content to address the specific challenges and goals of your organization, ensuring relevance and impact.
- He understands the science of human behavior: With a background as a chemical engineer and expertise in psychology, Tony combines rigorous research with practical solutions. His evidence-based insights align people, culture, and business objectives.
- He builds connections that transform: Tony's rare ability to connect with individuals from diverse backgrounds enables him to break down barriers, foster trust, and create lasting change. He inspires teams to collaborate and innovate effectively.
- He prepares organizations for the future: In an era of rapid change, Tony equips leaders and teams with the mindset and tools needed to navigate uncertainty and thrive in evolving environments.
- He inspires empathy and collaboration: Tony believes that relationships fuel results. His insights help organizations build trust, align teams, and create a culture where everyone feels valued and seen.

Light Up Your Culture Now!

speaker@tonychatman.com | www.TonyChatman.com | 1.630.400.5365

